

Teamwork

Today, you will get more done with teamwork than you could have done individually. A trick may be made from 3, 4, or 5 consecutive sign cards, and it will be worth 5, 10, or 15 Karmic Value Points, respectively.

Cooperation

There are bonuses to be had from helping someone and letting them help you in return. Any pre-existing trick that is made up of all cards of the same color gains 1 Karmic Value Point per card in the trick.

Mastery

Taking the time to master a skill will benefit you in the long run. A trick can be made from 6 cards with all the same color and element. This is worth 18 Karmic Value Points.

The Loner

Today, aggressive signs like Taurus and Leo may try to charge ahead and do things alone. This is ineffective and may hurt their Karma. 5 Karmic Value points are lost for every Taurus or Leo left unplayed.

Birds of a Feather

A Gemini knows how to find people of like mind. A trick may be made from 2, 3, 4, or 5 Gemini all of the same color, and it will be worth 4, 9, 16, or 25 points, respectively.
