

Welcome!

Welcome to our leisurely mini-game!

San Francisco weather can be quirky, so if outside conditions are not conducive to puzzling, feel free to solve in nearby cafés or restaurants. In general, you will not miss anything vital by leaving the clue site. Any exceptions to this will be explicitly noted on the appropriate puzzle.

If you find you need help on a puzzle at any point in this event, you can ask the staffer at the clue location. If the staffer is unavailable or has left the location, you can call XXX-XXX-XXXX.

Game Control will stop manning clue sites and the phone lines at 9:00 PM. At that time (or whenever you finish the final clue), open the 'final' envelope to reveal the end location.

Look both ways when crossing the street. Be mindful of your surroundings and belongings. Don't get arrested, don't get hurt, and have a great time!
